

ADVANCES IN FINANCIAL EDUCATION

VOLUME 7

SUMMER/WINTER 2009

ISSUES 1 & 2

- 1 A Primer on Bond Portfolio Value at Risk by Donald J. Smith
- 15 The Impact of Experience and Training on Finance Faculty Research Productivity by Dave O. Jackson and Cynthia J. Brown
- 34 Teaming: Collaboration Efforts Between Courses in Corporate Finance and Manufacturing Engineering by Greg Filbeck, Diane H. Parente and John T. Roth
- 56 Teaching Styles, Learning Levels, and Student Performance in the Finance Core by Richard J. Fendler, Craig Ruff and Milind Shrikhande
- 86 An Update of Teaching Methods and Evaluation in the Introductory Finance Classroom by Janet Hamilton and Kent T. Saunders
- 101 Linking Theory and Practice: A Risk and Return Analysis by Richard J. Kish and Karen Hogan
- 119 Retirement Planning: An Instructional Activity Demonstrating Accumulation Differences Between Lottery Winnings and Savings Programs by Joseph S. Ruhland, Chris W. Paul and Karen L. Hamilton
- 129 Teaching Client Relations and Professional Practice with *A Civil Action by James Philpot
- 141 Wherever You Go, Do as You See Others Do: Using Spanish Proverbs for Teaching Finance to Hispanic Students by Ernest N. Biktimirov
- 158 Examination Items in Financial Mathematics: A Bayesian Analysis of Differential Item Functioning (DIF) Using Item-Response Theory (IRT) by Andrew Sanford and Paul Lajbcygier

Financial Education Association